2013-14 SEASON

Three Days of Rain    A CHORUS LINE
 THE SHADOW BOX    RUMORS

Three Days of Rain

by Richard Greenberg

October 1-5

Three Days of Rain is a play that spans the decades and tells the story of a family putting together the pieces of the past.

Walker Janeway has been missing for a year and reappears in his sister's life on the day of their father's funeral. Walker and his Sister, Nan, struggle with the unknowns of the past while dealing with the grief of their present. Act II travels back to the moment that changed history for Walker and Nan's parents and made their work legendary.

A CHORUS LINE

Music by Marvin Hamlisch    Lyrics by Edward Kleban
Book by James Kirkwood Jr. & Nicholas Dante

November 14-16 & 21-23

A Chorus Line focuses on a group of dancers who are auditioning for a limited number of spots in a Broadway musical. The musical shows the trials and tribulations of artists seeking work in the challenging theatrical world. This Tony Award winning show features the songs "I Hope I Get It," "What I Did For Love," and "One." A Chorus Line offers a magical night of singing, dancing, and drama that audiences will never forget!

THE SHADOW BOX

by Michael Christofer

February 25-March 1

The winner of the Pulitzer and Tony awards, The Shadow Box, is a timeless journey told with humor and heartache that will make you want to rush home to hug the people that you love a little more tightly.

We live our lives as if they will have no end, believing there is always time to do more. When we discover that awful truth, that life on this earth with all who are dear to us is not infinite, then we hope, for one little ray of light to save us. At that moment, we live in The Shadow Box.

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the 2013-2014 Department of Theatre Season. I extend a heartfelt thanks to all who supported the Department's production of My Generation at the Region V Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival in Lincoln, Nebraska in January 2013. The invitation to perform at the festival honored the University of North Dakota for outstanding achievement and exemplary work. More than 65 students, musicians, faculty, staff, and volunteers traveled to Nebraska for the production where an audience of nearly 3,000 college and university students and faculty shared in the celebration of the performance. The growth in our program is exciting beyond words and we're proud of our students. With growth usually comes changes.

There has been a change in University policy that necessitates a few changes in our Angel donation procedures. In past years with an Angel donation of $150.00, we sent you two season tickets. We now have to separate this practice into two distinct transactions. Angel donors used to receive two "free" season tickets. We can no longer continue this practice.

We will continue to offer season tickets at a discount with payment sent directly to the Department of Theatre Arts, but the Department can no longer accept donations, like Angel donations, directly. Any giving to the Department of Theatre Arts must go through the Alumni Foundation. We will continue our Angel/Guardian Angel program but will have a new procedure for your donation.

Here's how the new giving opportunity will work:

1. Complete the season ticket order included in this brochure. Detach and mail it with your check or credit card number to the Department of Theatre Arts. Checks should be made out to UND.
2. If you would like to make a donation to Theatre Arts please go to <http://www.undalumni.org/theatre>
3. Go to Theatre Arts Fund (64300) to make your donation. Our individual production programs will list your name under your level of giving as follows:
  - Angel: $150.00 - $499
  - Guardian Angel: $500.00 - $999.00
  - Director's Circle: $1,000.00 - $2,999.00
  - Producer's Circle: $3,000.00 - $9,999.00
  - Benefactor: $10,000.00+
4. You may also wish to give to one of our endowments.

If you don't use a computer you can contact us at 701-777-3446 and we'll connect you to a real person to discuss these options. Your gifts provide our students with scholarships and meet priority needs for the Department of Theatre Arts. When the Alumni Foundation notifies us of your gift, we will send you a thank you and invitations to special events. Your name will appear in our programs for our individual shows.

Thank you for working with us in this transition phase. We thank all of the Angels who have sustained us over the years and assisted dozens of students through scholarship and we look forward to continuing our relationship.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call the Department of Theatre Arts at 701-777-3446.

Sincerely yours,

Kathleen McLennan

RUMORS

by Neil Simon

April 8-12

Chaos ensues when seven "high class" dysfunctional couples square off at a dinner party. The host of the party has shot himself in the ear and all of the members of this piece are forced to roll through their comic obstacles at break neck speed as they try to cover up the night's events and protect their reputations.

Neil Simon is in top form in this door slamming farce that will keep you guessing which Rumors are true.

SCENES FROM 12-13 SEASON

TIERS OF GIVING

As noted in Dr. McLennan's letter (see insert), aside from the Angel and Guardian Angel levels of donation, you can help the Theatre Arts program by learning more about the Director's Circle, the Producer's Circle or becoming a Benefactor.

The Alumni Foundation makes it easy! Go online to:

www.undalumni.org/theatre

No computer? Then contact UND Theatre Arts at 701-777-3446

and we will get you connected with the Alumni Foundation.
