Note

1. Late assignments will be penalized 5 points per day.

2. In the event of an emergency on the day you are scheduled to teach or take an exam, please notify the instructor prior to the class. Failure to show up will result in a severe penalty. If you can’t call prior to class, call as soon as possible when you get back.

   If you had a job, your principal would expect you to show up for school or send word that a substitute needed to be hired.

3. Students are expected to attend school observations (scheduled during class time). Leaving early or coming late must be approved in advance and may result in the scheduling of a make-up visit by the individual student.

4. Please bring your packet, book, and recorder; attend every day and be on time.

Statement Regarding Exceptional Students
If you have emergency medical information to share with me, if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, or if you need accommodations in this course because of disability, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible. My office location is the community music room and my office hours are as announced.

Academic Honesty/Plagiarism Policy
Collaboration or sharing of test information before, during, or after a test is cheating. In written work, students must cite (i.e., footnote) any other author's (including your roommate's) material in work submitted for a grade. All uncited material must be the work of the student submitting it. Students must not collaborate unless specifically authorized by the teacher. Students who cheat on tests, who share test materials with others, who submit any written work without necessary citation, or who indulge in unauthorized collaboration on written work or examinations will receive a ZERO for the unit of work in question. Repeaters will receive an F for the course. Students involved in Academic Dishonesty will have their names referred to the Dean of Students’ Office for filing after each offense and for disciplinary action after the second or later one.
